Student Transportation would like to remind you that ETS student bus passes are now valid for use seven days per week.

The current ETS bus passes were printed prior to the agreement to improve ETS services, so please disregard the Monday-Friday restrictions printed on the back of the ETS bus pass. Remember that your child can now take advantage of ETS bus service on weekdays, weekends and statutory holidays. These improved services will be reflected on bus passes starting in January 2009.

For more detailed information on ETS service for Edmonton Public Schools students, please contact your child's school, or Student Transportation.
